

It is our pleasure to inform you that your paper, entitled "A contrastive acoustic analysis of dental and alveolar stops in Spanish and English", has been accepted for a Poster Presentation at the 2014 Hispanic Linguistics Symposium at Purdue University. Please let us know by August 25th if you plan on attending by following this link: https://purdue.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_8kNA376NO3dlTHD

This year we received over 225 abstracts and were only able to accept about one third for Oral Presentations. Each abstract was rated by two external reviewers from the field.

As a reminder, registration and information are available here:

We look forward to seeing you in November!

Sincerely,

The HLS 2014 Organizing Committee
